MAD-CHICK ROCKER BronweN TEAMS UP WITH KIDS HELP PHONE

BronweN, the newest phenomenon in Canadian rock music has teamed up with Kids Help Phone through their artist ambassador program.

As a longtime victim of bullying, BronweN wants to use her career in music to make a positive change. She will be:

- educating her audiences about the effects of bullying and the services available to youth from Kids Help Phone
- donating a portion of the sales of her debut release “Silent Victim” to the non-profit organization

“I understand what kids are feeling and I want them to know they can call or write to Kids Help Phone counsellors when they feel lonely, isolated, bullied or threatened,” says BronweN. “I am excited about being involved with Kids Help Phone and dedicated to the work they do for youth.”

Kids Help Phone is Canada’s only toll-free, 24-hour, bilingual and anonymous phone and web counselling, referral and information service for children and youth. Every day, professional counsellors provide immediate, caring support to young people in urban and rural communities across the country. Children and teens contact Kids Help Phone about every issue imaginable including physical, sexual, and emotional abuse, drugs and suicide. In 2005, Kids Help Phone helped young people in need from almost 3,000 Canadian communities more than 1 million times through its phone and online services. The artist ambassador program enables artists to use their high-profile to promote Kids Help Phone to the public, and youth in particular.

BronweN’s debut release, “Silent Victim” will be available online, September 5, 2006.
